Threads!

Suzie Cappa Show at the Dahl through January

Artists from the Black Hills Workshop's Suzie Cappa Center for Art Expression and Enjoyment are showing their work at the Dahl Arts Center through January 28. The show, Threads, features fabric arts. The exhibit is open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays, and Fridays 11 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Volunteering at BHWS

The Black Hills Workshop is very fortunate to have a dedicated following of community members who donate their time through volunteering, and enhancing of the lives of the people we support. Volunteers make a difference in a variety ways, examples include, singing at karaoke, making cards in the group homes, coaching Special Olympics, and assisting with community outings. If a volunteer is willing to share their interests and passions with the people served by Black Hills Workshop, the volunteer program fosters these connections and promotes volunteering. Parents and family members are encouraged to share their, hobbies, interests, and passions with the Black Hills Workshop. If parents and family members are interested in volunteering, they are encouraged to contact the Volunteer Coordinator at 343-4581 ext. 231 or ddalen@bhws.com. Flexible scheduling, supportive environments, and, in this case, more time with loved ones, are all benefits of volunteering with Black Hills Workshop. Make a difference through volunteering with the Black Hills Workshop.
